CME Outfitters' Brand New Psoriasis Meeting Highlight Series Available Online for CME Credit

Five CME Outfitters (CMEO) Snacks Now Available Online For Physicians Seeking Credit: Meeting Highlights From A National Dermatology Conference With Expert Faculty Bruce E. Strober, MD, and Joel M. Gelfand, MD

BETHESDA, Maryland (January 28, 2016) – CME Outfitters (CMEO), a leading accredited provider in continuing medical education, announces the release of five brand new CMEO Snacks (short online CME activities). The Snacks highlight important education from a national dermatology conference in Las Vegas, NV where expert faculty translate insights and recommendations about current and emerging psoriasis treatment, monitoring of patients on biologics, management of comorbidities, and quality of life.

Meeting Highlight Video Topics:

- Causes for Loss of Effectiveness of Psoriasis Agents
- Individualizing Treatment for Psoriasis
- Newly Approved Therapies for Moderate-to-Severe Psoriasis
- Comorbidities in Moderate-to-Severe Psoriasis
- Emerging Therapies in Psoriasis

CME Outfitters, LLC, is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. CME Outfitters, LLC, designates this enduring material for a maximum of .25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. The designated credit is per Snack, with 1.25 credits available total.

“The CMEO Snacks offer shorter, focused content, which allows the viewer control over the depth of content and time spent,” said Shari Tordoff, CCMEP, CMEO Managing Partner. “Our instructional designers worked with expert physician faculty to provide highlights of a relevant conference in an online, archived format. We’re excited that the education is now available to a broad audience of clinicians so that we can share the latest clinical evidence in dermatology.”
